THE MINISTER OF LAW, JUSTICE AND COMPANY AFFAIRS (SHRI M. THAMBI DURAI): (a) to (c) A number of reconciliation centres have been established in the State of Gujarat by Gujarat State Legal Services Authority for emicable settlement of disputes between the parties. Lok Adalats are now taking over the functions and role of reconciliation centres throught the country under the directions of the National Legal Srvices Authority established under the Legal Services Authority Act, 1987. The Lok Adalats have been provided a statutory base with the enforcement and extension of Chapter III of the said Act to all the States and U.T. Administrations. The Lok Adalats are now vested with the power of a Civil Court and the awards passed by the Lok Adalats are final, binding on the parties and are also non-appealable. Pursuant to the decision taken by the National Legal Services Authority at its first meeting held on 13th September, 1997 it has been decided to set up permanent and continuous Lok Adalats in all the Districts in the country for providing an additional forum to the litigants for conciliatory settlement of their disputes to relieve some burden from the regular courts. The permanent and continuous Lok Adalats would be reconciliation forum with a statutory basis. Efforts are also a foot to establish permanent and continuous Lok Adalats in the Government Departments, Statutory Bodies and Public Sector Undertakings which involve in a large number of legal matters.

(d) Does not arise.
